

PTA

Torrance Council Way

By Mrs. Lee Polick

CALLE MAYOR

The Calle Mayor PTA will hold its monthly meeting on Tuesday evening, Nov. 10, at 7:30 p.m. After a short business meeting there will be a motorcade to the Educational Materials Building in Torrance. Refreshments will follow.

EDISON

Edison PTA members will have the pleasure of meeting their oldest member at the next association meeting on Nov. 12. She is Mrs. Nettie McFadden, 86, whose daughter-in-law, Mrs. John McFadden, is Edison's PTA president. The elder Mrs. McFadden who comes originally from Lyons, Colo., is currently visiting with her son and family in Torrance. "Family fun" will be the subject of the evening's program. The featured speaker will be Joe Wilcox, Executive Secretary of the Torrance YMCA. He will tell the audience of the many ways in which a family can enjoy its recreation together.

All members and friends are invited and are asked to note that because of the holiday, the regular Wednesday meeting date has been changed to Thursday.

ARLINGTON

Guests of the Arlington PTA membership committee at a luncheon in the teachers' room Monday, Oct. 5, were Mr. Henry Behrens, principal, and the teachers.

The theme for the membership campaign and prizes were explained. Mrs. Lloyd Van DeVort, membership chairman, was assisted by Mrs. Floyd Quattrini, president, Mrs. Calvin Filson and Mrs. Harry Goodgold.

LINCOLN

The organizational meeting for the Lincoln Elementary PTA was held in the cafeteria, Thursday, Oct. 15, at 7:30 p.m.

The By-Laws were read and adopted. The date for the association meeting was established for the second Thursday of the month at 7:30 p.m.

The following officers were elected and installed by Mrs. William Poser, president of the Torrance Council PTA.

Mrs. James C. Orr, president; Mrs. W. T. Mooney, first vice-president; Mrs. R. Hobbs, second vice-president; Mrs. L. R. Eide, third vice-president; Mrs. Carl Bronson, recording secretary; Mrs. John Taber, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Kenneth Miller, treasurer; A. G. Swanson, auditor and Mrs. Conrad Perez, historian.

HAMILTON

Hamilton PTA Executive Board will be hostesses at a Pot Luck Family Night, Nov. 16 from 6 to 8:30 p.m. at the school cafeteria.

A humorous program including teachers and parents is being planned. This will be the first purely social activity at Hamilton and all parents and children are invited. Mrs. William Wells and her committee hope many will attend for an evening of old fashioned fun!

Rebekah District Meet In Torrance Wednesday

On Wednesday evening, Nov. 11, the Torrance Rebekah Lodge will be the hosts to the Rebekah lodges in the district for the annual District Initiation of a class of candidates.

The meeting will be called to order at 8 p.m. by the Noble Grand of the Torrance Lodge, Mrs. Shirley Leetz. The following lodges will have a part in the initiatory service: Welcome Rebekah Lodge of Inglewood, Hawthorne Rebekah Lodge of Hawthorne, Gold Crest Rebekah Lodge of El Segundo, Silver Crest Rebekah Lodge of Redondo Beach, Silver Wave Rebekah Lodge of Santa Monica, Neta Dena Rebekah Lodge of Gardena and the West Los Angeles Rebekah Lodge.

The Drill Captain is Mrs. Retta Nelson. Mrs. Belva Brase will be the hostess in the dining room for this occasion.

The Fun and Fund Club of this lodge met this last Wednesday and elected the following members to offices for the

HILLSIDE

Fall Festival of Fashions was presented by the Hillside PTA on Oct. 29. Mrs. Dixie Hart introduced the models whose featured attire was the latest home sewn mother's and children's fashions. Mrs. Hart was assisted by Mrs. James Struberg.

Entertainment included Patty Potchika, the Malcolm girls and Jeanna Burks, soloist. Mrs. Miller accompanied Mrs. Burks on the piano.

WOOD

Witches, black cats and pumpkins, in the form of decor, greeted members and guests of Howard Wood PTA at a Halloween "kidnap breakfast" held recently at the home of Mrs. V. G. Tidmarsh, 2151 Middlebrook Rd.

Early risers were served a variety of nut breads, doughnuts and coffee by Mmes. Hiro Muranaka and Paul Crossman.

NEWTON

Newton PTA board members will meet at the home of Mrs. Warren Post, 220 Vista del Parque, on Nov. 12 at 10 a.m.

Mrs. Patsy Trowbridge, school psychologist, will be the guest speaker at the association meeting on Nov. 19 at 8 p.m. in the school cafeteria. The seventh grade mothers will be hostesses for the social hour following the meeting.

Delores

The drive for funds for the Community Chest will begin this week. Mrs. Byron Hutchison, Community Chest chairman for Dolores St. PTA, announced she has met her quota of volunteer workers. Mrs. Hutchison will be assisted by Mmes. LaMarr Anderson, Dale Phillips, Robert Godana, Edmund West, Robert Edlin, Steve Minko, Theodore Wallace, Benjamin Virgin, Allyn Bottrell, L. Paloli, Frank Martinus, Phillip Pandolpho, G. Gries, William Deyoe, and B. Hayes.

Dolores Street PTA has had a successful membership drive. Mrs. Earl Boner (membership chairman) has announced 782 members. Mrs. Armstrong's 4th grade and Mrs. Lampel's first grade classes had the greatest number of members for the PTA. Mrs. Baker's fifth grade class and Mrs. Loew's first grade class came in second with their PTA membership.

259th Street

A faculty panel discussion on homework will be the feature of the next 259th Place School PTA meeting when it is held in the auditorium on November 10 at 12:30 p.m. This should be a meeting that every parent will want to attend. Child care will be provided and refreshments will be served.

Coming in the month of December is the Open House meeting. There will be a time for parents to visit the rooms of their children before the meeting begins in the auditorium.

Newton

Newton PTA members opened their first meeting of the school year with an introduction of the teachers by Mr. C. Richard Wallner, principal. A Newton banner will be presented to Mrs. Jenie Webb's second and third grade combination class as the winner. Mr. Wallner demonstrated by using charts the fluxuating reading abilities in a fourth grade class ranging from second grade to seventh grade reading level as an illustration of teacher problems. Lower division faculty members demonstrated the basic method of coping with this situation by having reading groups in the classes. The upper division teachers choose reading material at the beginning of the semester then the students select from these the books that interest them and read privately to the teachers.

There was a table display of accelerated books for the exceptional readers. The unit accepted the proposed budget presented by Mrs. John Chedotte, treasurer, and the revised Torrance Council PTA Scholarship Fund read by Mrs. Robbins. Mrs. James Hurst gave a brief report on the first TEAC luncheon.

Mrs. Warren Post, program chairman, announced that at the November meeting Mrs. Patsy Trowbridge, school psychologist, will be featured. The meeting adjourned with coffee and cookies served by the eighth grade mothers.

Calle Mayor

Calle Mayor PTA members will be guided on a tour of the Torrance Unified School District's Educational Materials Building by the school's teachers Tuesday evening, Nov. 10. Following a short business meeting in the school cafeteria at 7:30 p.m. the group will motor into Torrance for the informative viewing of the District's library. Arrangements are being made by Mrs. Warren Boggs, program chairman, and Myron Rupel, principal. All parents are urged to attend.

The monthly Calle Mayor meeting was held Wednesday evening. Mrs. Donald Moore, president, announced an educational cancer film will be shown in the near future by the association. During the business session the board voted to recommend that all members write to the fifteen Senate Judicial Committee members who voted on the Dill's Bill, 2727, asking how they voted on the anti-narcotics legislation and express their feelings in this growing problem.

Mrs. Mabel Unger awarded room membership prizes to the rooms of Mrs. Carol Fox and Mr. Papadakis.

Fleming

Fleming Junior High School Girls Glee Club made their debut at the PTA meeting held in the school auditorium on Oct. 27. The club, under the direction of Maurice Glick, presented two numbers.

Boys from the physical education department, under the chairmanship of Myron Gerber, demonstrated their skills in gymnastics.

Ninth grade girls gave an exhibition of modern dance. Seventh and eighth grade girls presented Lithuanian and American folk dances. Members of the corrective gym class demonstrated their exercises, each group showing various phases of Girls Physical Education.

Mrs. Lewis Gandsey, PTA membership chairman, reported 95% membership in Fleming with a total of 1673 members, 558 of which are men. She reported 100% teacher membership.

At the recent executive board meeting in the auditorium Mrs. Leland Van Buren, president, accepted the resignation of Mrs. John McGuire as safety chairman and presented Mrs. M. L. McGee for ratification as civil defense chairman.

Next association meeting will be held Nov. 24 at 1:30 p.m.

Magruder

Mrs. Elmer Ecker, president conducted the meeting of the Magruder PTA. Boy Scout troop 987 led the pledge of allegiance and Mrs. Steven Goral gave the inspiration.

The sixth and seventh grade classes of Mr. Dan Williams presented a skit "Phiffel the Sniffel," on the prevention of colds.

Executive board members presented a fashion show "So This is PTA." Each wore a costume to represent her PTA job.

Mrs. Allen's second and third grade classes won the attendance awards.

Dinner Meeting

Harbor City Insurance Women will meet Nov. 19 at the Wayfarers restaurant, 2230 Pacific Coast Hwy. Cocktails at 6 will be followed by dinner at 7. John G. Miller, branch manager of the Transit Casualty Co., will be the speaker. Margaret Miller and Pat Drewery are taking reservations.
